

$1.05 RATE IS SEEN AS CITY'S TAX

Salary Reductions Provided by Agreement

After a four-hour debate which ended at midnight, the city council Monday adopted its city employee salary reduction schedule, together with certain readjustments recommended by City Manager E. A. Rolison in connection therewith.

With this perplexing problem out of the way, the council and city manager were in a position to cut the tax rate to $1.05, a reduction of 25 cents compared with last year's rate.

Under the provisions of the new salary schedule, all city employees are affected, and the total amount to be saved is approximately $6000. This will account for a five cent cut in the tax rate.

The budget as prepared by the city manager in June was accepted by the council. There are still a few changes to be made.

Cuts for the city building inspector and health officer, the poundmaster, a clerk in the tax office, the chief of police and the superintendent of parks, as proposed by the council, were modified on recommendation of the city manager after he had called attention to all the work which they are doing.

The modification will not affect the tax rate.

Acceptance of the salary schedule and the city manager's recommendations was voted on motion of Councilman H. A. Boeger, seconded by Councilman Paul A. McCarthy.

City Attorney Albert Mansfield did not protest his salary cut, but objected to the council's plan to cease paying $25 monthly towards the rent of his office. His salary was then fixed at $250 per month, out of which he is to pay the rent money. The city no longer is to contribute towards the salary of his stenographer.

The salaries will not be reduced by ordinance, but through mutual agreement of all employees, and the cut becomes effective as of August 1.

City Attorney Mansfield will draw up an agreement for the salary reductions. The money thus saved will tend to make possible unemployment relief steps.

An ordinance fixing the amount of money to be raised by taxation for the coming year was introduced.

Councilman Robert Jones brought up the suggestion that the city electrical work now done by Chief of Police C. L. Collins be transferred to Fire Chief Mark Ryan. The latter said he "must respectfully decline to climb poles."

The city manager stated that the city was maintaining its lighting system much cheaper than it would be done by a private corporation.

The city manager stated that "it occurs to me that employees of the street and water departments performing manual labor on daily pay should not have been reduced more in proportion than other employees paid on a monthly basis, but I have used the same figures in these cases as proposed by the council."

Crosby Tells Senate Needs

Wide interest in the activities of the state legislature this year will be evidenced in San Mateo county, with a number of issues, important to the taxpayer, to be considered. It appears now, according to political observers, that there will be several things of importance to this county before the state body.

One of the principal issues probably will be that of cross-county highways, so necessary in the development of the county, and those in close touch with the situation claim that real effort will be needed to win for this county its fair share of state aid. In addition to the highway problem there will be the balancing of the state budget and a number of other things, in which the county will be vitally interested.

William Crosby, in a statement to the press today, stressed these issues and said that in his fight to represent this county in the state senate he had pledged his untiring efforts to any constructive move for the benefit of the county. Crosby is seeking the new state senatorship recently allotted to San Mateo county under the state re-apportionment bill.

Rolph's Son Joins In Appeal for Road

James Rolph III, son of the governor, joined other petitioners Monday afternoon in asking that San Mateo County Board of Supervisors accept the road connecting the Woodside-Portola highway with the Los Trancos Woods gate as part of the county system.

Board Asked To Eliminate 40-Cent Road Levy During 1932-33 To Effect Saving

DEMANDING the abolishment in its entirety of the 40-cent road tax levied in outside areas of San Mateo county, taxpayers packed the supervisors' chambers in Redwood City yesterday at the first hearing on the 1932-33 county budget.

Severe criticism of the board for its failure to publicize the items, or to print the tentative budget as required by law, came from former Mayor Daniel R. Stafford of Redwood City; from Sam D. Merk of San Mateo, and other tax reduction seeking groups.

"How can this group of taxpayers protest an item when the contents of the budget are an absolute mystery to us?" Stafford asked.

County Auditor Edward M. Stack replied that "there is no sense in attempting to make copies of a budget only half completed," and followed with severe criticism of county officials who had failed to bring in their departmental demands in time.

Stafford urged that the board hold up the salary of these officials who did not comply with their full duties, declaring they left the taxpayers "at sea" by delaying the printing of the budget and therefore barred the way to constructive criticism.

Attorney W. H. Morrissey of Redwood City, chairman of the board of governors of the San Mateo County Federation of Improvement Clubs and Associations, then turned the guns of criticism on those items with which the board was familiar.

He demanded that the board consider the absolute abolishment of the 40-cent road tax, pointing to the huge sums received by the county from the state gas funds and saying that this should be ample to meet the road needs of San Mateo county at least for the coming year.

6000 County Workers Now Out of Jobs

Approval Is Voiced By Supervisors To Bond Proposal

With 3200 unemployed men registered and the number of actual jobless men believed to be nearer 5000 or 6000—representing perhaps 10,000 to 15,000 needy—the San Mateo County Committee on Unemployment Relief Monday appealed to the board of supervisors to place a $350,000 bond issue on the November ballot to raise funds to help the county's destitute.

This step the board approved, and the machinery was immediately set in motion to have the district attorney prepare the necessary legal moves to put the issue before the people.

Capt. Edward Macauley, chairman of the unemployment committee, outlined what other counties on the Pacific Coast are doing to meet the emergency.

San Francisco, he pointed out, will vote on a $5,500,000 issue in November. San Mateo county's population is one-tenth as great as San Francisco's, but instead of one-tenth of San Francisco's sum, only $350,000 will be asked, he said.

Los Angeles county will vote on a $12,000,000 issue. Kings county, Washington, in which Seattle is situated, will ballot on $2,000,000, and Multnomah county, home of Portland, will decide on a similar amount.

"In the name of humanity and in behalf of our self respect, let us help those who are sick in mind and body through unemployment worries," Captain Macauley said.

Benjamin H. Ellar of Redwood City, one of the workmen present in behalf of the bond issue, said that Macauley's report "hit the situation squarely" and that the bond issue "means the future welfare of this county's workers."

W. H. Kopping, another speaker, favored the bonds, but voiced the need of immediate steps to help the needy. He said many persons were being forced to cook on outdoor makeshift stoves because the gas had been turned off, and that in some instances even the water had been shut off. He urged the board to guarantee payment of these bills so the power company would again furnish services.

E. C. Lydon of San Mateo said the local committee there had the situation half in hand but that the $3000 being raised from teachers and municipal salaries and from private subscriptions was inadequate and relief must be had from a bond issue to complete the task.

Upon the motion of Supervisor Hickey, seconded by Supervisor Brown, the board voted approval of the $350,000 bond issue idea.

SHORTTRIDGE AIDS BOOST CANDIDATE

Well-Attended Meet Is Held Here Wednesday

The many friends, supporters and admirers of Senator Samuel M. Shortridge in San Mateo county met in Judge Buck's courtroom in the courthouse Wednesday evening.

Horace Amphlett presided and D. E. O'Keefe acted as secretary. Every section of the county was represented and much enthusiasm prevailed, all agreeing that Senator Shortridge would be returned to the senate with a flattering vote.

Amphlett in a few well chosen words outlined the objects of the gathering, declaring that every district should have a worker.

Attorney J. W. Coleberd of South San Francisco, anticipated a big vote in his section for the senator.

J. E. A. Miller, Daly City, spoke glowingly of the service of Shortridge in the senate.

A. Groves, the sage of East Palo Alto, said the chamber of commerce of his community had endorsed the candidacy of Shortridge at a meeting held recently.

Mr. A. McSweeney asserted the liquor question was the burning issue and that Senator Shortridge's position on the subject was the proper one.

Others who spoke were: Postmaster G. Hardy, South San Francisco, D. A. O'Keefe, John Shortridge, son of the senator; William Clark, Postmaster Hughes, San Bruno; J. Zana, San Bruno; Carl Mable, Redwood City; Attorney David Cosgrave, Redwood City; David Moore, Menlo Park. All spoke in praise of the senator's efforts in Washington. Speakers pointed out that owing to the long service of Shortridge at Washington and his prominence there, it would be a blow to California if he were not returned to the capital.

Workers were appointed to take charge of every section of the county and make a canvass of the voters between now and August 30.

It was predicted that Shortridge would carry the county by more than 10,000 votes over his closest opponent.

A big Shortridge rally is to be held at San Mateo before the election.

COUNTY WITHIN BONDING LIMIT

Outstanding Debt Is Under $700,000

San Mateo county is well within its bonding limits in proposing a $350,000 issue for unemployment relief.

Outstanding bonded debt is now less than $700,000, while the bonding capacity is $2,500,000.

Bonds outstanding and yet to be paid are $600,000 of the $1,250,000 1913 highway bond issue; $56,000 of the $125,000 1906 courthouse bond issue, and $13,500 of the courthouse furnishing bond issue.

The highway issue will mature in 1942 and the two smaller issues in 1946.

Not since 1913 has the county voted any bonds.

Foreign War Vets Plan Fete Sunday

The members of Corporal James Lindsay Wilson Post No. 2311, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are making plans for their big box social and moonlight picnic to be held at Mangini's Park, Portola, Saturday evening, August 27, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. The admission will be 25 cents and the public is cordially invited. The proceeds of the affair will go toward the relief fund of the organization. A strong committee is in charge of arrangements.

POLITICAL RALLY HELD

Over 100 boosters for John Poole for supervisor gathered Monday night in the opera house to endorse under the chairmanship of Philip Owens and pledged their support to his re-election. Mr. Owens opened the meeting with a talk endorsing Mr. Poole's candidacy. Mr. Poole addressed the meeting and cleared up to the satisfaction of those present many rumors and explained the activities over which he has jurisdiction. Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Earl Rush.

TWO ARE INJURED

BURLINGAME, Aug. 18—Slight injuries were suffered by two motorists early today when cars of J. Carlock, 438 Vera avenue, Redwood City, and L. O. Batson, 1408 Cabrillo road, collided at Occidental and Chapin avenues.

OLYMPIC STARS COMPETE IN BRITISH-AMERICAN MEET

Post-Olympic track and field events, featuring stars of the United States and the British Empire, were held in Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, as an aftermath of the great games in Los Angeles. Upper left: Chubei Nambu, Japan, exhibiting the stuff it takes to make a world champion broad jumper. Upper right: Nellie Halstead, Great Britain, nosing out Billie von Bremen, San Francisco, at the finish of the women's 400-yard relay. Lower: Ralph Metcalfe, giant Negro, failed by a yard to overcome an eight-yard lead in the last distance of the half-mile relay, and he lost to D. Joubert of South Africa. Lower right: Jim Bausch, the "iron man" of the Olympics, about to throw the javelin.

Parkman Tells Training Value

Harry L. Parkman, who is a candidate for election to the office of state senator for San Mateo county, has given the Times-Gazette the following signed statement:

"Never in my experience as a candidate for office have I seen so many evident attempts to misrepresent and mislead the voters in regard to my stand on certain matters.

"My experience in the three sessions—1927, 1929 and 1931—have taught me that it is not at all easy to get bills through both houses and past the governor, therefore a man is foolish to make a lot of promises. There are 79 other assemblymen and 40 senators, with the welfare and protection of the particular district in mind, and the governor's staff, the attorney general's office, and the legislative counsel bureau, all with the statewide view-points, and all carefully scrutinizing bills.

"Bills that might be of tremendous value, and might even be very necessary to some one county, might not meet with the approval of some other county, and there is immediate opposition. The care that is actually exercised is best demonstrated by the fact that in the 1931 session, 2,921 bills were introduced, and that only 1,233 were signed by the governor.

"After a person goes through one session he learns that many bills are introduced by groups and individuals for the purpose of 'feathering their own nests,' and he also learns that many good bills are introduced prematurely or that they do not fit in to the orderly program of state legislation, and that a vote for them would injure the chances of securing the passage and signing of other bills that are needed by his district.

"I have always tried to find out what the majority of my constituents wanted (because I firmly believe that our government is based upon the principle of majority rule), and I will always work and vote for whatever I believe to be their will.

"I believe, however, that I have a right to ask that the voters consider my entire record, and not some votes that are selected with the purpose of injuring me. The taxpayers should know that I had the courage to take a stand in the campaign of 1926 and again in 1928, and still again in 1930, and that I kept my promises in the 1927, 1929 and 1931 sessions."

O'Malley Still In Senate Race

Joseph F. O'Malley, Democratic candidate for the office of state senator from San Mateo county, issued the following statement denying that he has withdrawn from the race:

"It has come to my knowledge, that reports are being circulated throughout the county that I have withdrawn from the senate race in San Mateo county and that I am no longer a candidate for that office.

"For the information of my friends who are working for the success of my nomination and the voters of the county, I would like to state that I have not retired from the field of candidates for the office. There is absolutely no foundation for the report that I have withdrawn from the race.

"I personally have never made any declaration that I have withdrawn, nor have I at any time authorized any person to make such a statement on my behalf. The one evident purpose of the persons circulating the report that I have withdrawn is to weaken my candidacy and to deceive and mislead the voters. I am still in this fight and will be to the finish.

"It is true that I am not seeking the Republican nomination. I am a Democrat and seeking the Democratic party nomination only. My opponents for the same office are seeking both the Republican and Democratic party nominations."

"Only a year ago, because of the county's rapid development and the great increase in court business, was a new court established. Judge Buck said today he was leaving his campaign entirely in the hands of his friends while he continues on with his court work. With a heavy calendar scheduled, the judge added, he did not feel he could neglect his work for politics.

He is confident, he said, that the county appreciates his service and so leaves his campaign to friends and continues on the bench.

Atherton Tax Rate Will Be 92 Cents

ATHERTON, Aug. 18—The city council will meet late this month to officially fix the tax at 92 cents, a reduction of 3 cents compared to last year's rate. The usual 8 cent special levy for the municipal improvement fund, for the interest and redemption of the town hall bonds, will also be provided.

The rate is based on an assessed valuation of $2,582,600. The budget allows for municipal expenditures of $21,400, and a $750 public work fund for resident unemployed. This latter fund was $500 last year. It is estimated $1900 will be raised by the special 8 cent levy.

Buck Confident Of Vote Victory

With little more than another week before the primary election of August 30, politics today was rapidly gaining the center of public interest throughout the county. Candidates this year are, perhaps, more numerous than they have been in a long time.

There is wide interest in several political battles, but one that political observers admit is holding the center of the stage is the contest for superior court No. 1, over which Judge George H. Buck now presides, and has presided for 42 years. Judge Buck is facing five opponents in his effort to retain his seat on the bench.

Friends of the jurist are waging an intensive campaign on his behalf, and as the campaign is drawing to a close are optimistic. Judge Buck has been an outstanding figure in county affairs for a half century, and his battle now is one of the most interesting the county has witnessed for many years.

Sponsors of the judge's campaign, this week are pointing to the fact that during the past 20 years he has saved the county some $320,000 by handling the entire court calendar alone. In 1910 San Mateo county became eligible for two superior courts and judges, but was spared the expense of some $16,000 a year, which it costs to operate a superior court in this county, when Judge Buck continued the work alone.

Only a year ago, because of the county's rapid development and the great increase in court business, was a new court established. Judge Buck said today he was leaving his campaign entirely in the hands of his friends while he continues on with his court work. With a heavy calendar scheduled, the judge added, he did not feel he could neglect his work for politics.

He is confident, he said, that the county appreciates his service and so leaves his campaign to friends and continues on the bench.

Menlo Park Heiress Is Divorced by Mate

Philip F. Ewald Tuesday obtained a final decree of divorce from Waltra Linforth Threlkeld Ewald, heiress-daughter of Attorney Walter Linforth, of Menlo Park and San Francisco.

The interlocutory decree was granted on August 15, 1931, and the final today in the court of Superior Judge George H. Buck. Hall C. Ross represented the plaintiff.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN DOORS ON MONDAY

All Institutions Will Greet Record Lists Of Students

With an expected increase of approximately 100 students, and an anticipated record enrollment of at least 1365 before the school year is over, Sequoia Union High School will open Monday morning for the fall term.

To accommodate the increased number of students without adding to the present faculty of 52, a new class schedule has been adopted for the year whereby there will be six periods of one hour each and two noon periods of 40 minutes each.

Under the new plan, 40 minutes of the hour will be devoted to recitation in academic courses and 20 minutes to supervised study, thus minimizing the amount of home study expected of each student.

Classes will continue to operate on the "double shift" plan introduced last year to make efficient use of the school buses.

Registration of transfers and new students not previously registered is being made today and Friday. Final registration of all students will be completed Monday, starting at 8:15 a. m.

The following fees are due the first day: student body dues, $2; towel fee, $2; key deposit on main building locker, 25 cents; key deposit on gymnasium locker, 25 cents, or padlock, $1; Sequoia Girls' Society or Boys' League dues, 25 cents.

Marking the opening of the new $41,000 Jefferson school on Eagle Hill, Jefferson Avenue, classes will get under way in the six schools of the Redwood City Elementary School District at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning.

The Jefferson school was designed by the late Alfred I. Coffey, local architect, and his original plans were carried out by his associate, Martin Rietz.

Pupils living in the district bounded by King and Katherine streets, Oak avenue and the foothills will attend the new school.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of classes, according to Superintendent John Gill. Buildings have been painted and repaired and every room has been cleaned and fumigated.

Ages for children starting school are listed by Superintendent Gill as follows: To enter kindergarten, a child must be at least 4 years 3 months of age; to enter the first grade he must be 5 years 9 months. By law pupils will be admitted to kindergarten and the first grade during the first month of school only.

Opening its doors for the first time in its new $100,000 building at Katherine and Grand streets, the Mount Carmel parochial school reports an increase of 75 new students.

The total registration total was approximately 225, with many new students being accepted from the list which had mounted while the school occupied its original structure.

Mount Carmel school, which is conducted by the Sisters of Notre Dame, offers general secondary instruction and specializes in courses in music, for which a complete department in the new building is provided.

Peterson Gives Assembly Views

Col. Frederick Peterson, Burlingame, widely known civic leader, is one of the strongest candidates for the assembly post to be filled at the primary election, August 30. Colonel Peterson has been a business man in San Mateo county for more than 13 years. He is a veteran of both the Spanish-American and World Wars, during which he served with distinction.

In nearly every fight for civic improvement and better government in the county for the last 10 years, Colonel Peterson has been an active figure. He has organized and headed numerous civic and other societies, and a number of movements for improved conditions in the county. He is an experienced legislator, and is known to be familiar with all San Mateo county affairs.

In speaking of his candidacy for the assembly, Colonel Peterson says: "This, indeed, is the time for constructive economy and our people should be asked to bear no greater burden than they are doing at present. The financial problem can be solved by prudent action and the elimination of politics. Should I be chosen to represent this county in the assembly, I shall retain the same constructive and energetic principles that have marked my service in the past. I shall fight to bring this county the recognition it so richly deserves."

City's Books Found to Be Satisfactory by Auditor

The city's books were found to be satisfactory by Auditor C. E. Platt, certified public accountant, his report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, submitted to the council Monday night, revealed.

"The officers and employees of the city, so far as I have observed, are zealous in their work and courteous to the public. All cash receipts as recorded, have been promptly deposited in the banks intact, and all cash disbursements are duly supported by legal evidence of proper charges against the city. The books of account are currently posted and the best interests of the city appear to be well protected." Thus was the auditor's opinion expressed in his report.

He made the following recommendations:

That one of the local banks be required to deposit with the treasurer securities to the face value of $1870 or more. This action is necessary to legally protect the $1700 now deposited.

That the council take action, if legally possible, to collect current installments due for the 1915 bond act, special district improvement bonds, so that principal and interest now due bondholders may be paid.

That weed assessment delinquencies prior to 1930, if deemed uncollectible, be written off.

That only that portion of the capital outlay since July 1, 1927, representing actual tangible assets, be retained on the books, and that the remainder be written off.

And that the council consider the advisability and practicability of taxing water department property.

Joseph Casaretto complained of storm water conditions at Hillview and Brewster avenues. The council said it was an old complaint, and that it was justified, but that there were but two ways to give adequate relief: through a bond issue, or through an assessment district. Neither would be popular at this time, said the council.

J. W. Kelley also complained of the drainage conditions, which had caused his basement to be flooded many times. City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt offered to meet with him Saturday afternoon to inspect the district, and see what temporary relief might be offered.

The council denied Walter Conant's request for permission to sell potato chips, unless he paid a license of $5 per day. This, he said, he could not afford.

Mayor W. J. Dusel named Councilman Beeger to serve with the city manager and city engineer as a committee to report on the railroad company's plan to install a flasher signal at the Spruce street crossing, in place of a flagman.

The board again delayed action on the county charter study committee's request for financial assistance to publicize the new charter. Councilman George McNulty was opposed to the request.

The board reduced the assessment on a home and garage at 168 Lincoln avenue from $600 to $300, when the owner complained that the buildings were worth very little.

Mrs. Moore Hostess At Daughter's Home On 69th Birthday

Entertaining in observance of her 69th birthday, Mrs. Mary Moore was hostess Friday to 40 friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Witherley in Mission San Jose.

Among her guests were members of the Happy Hour Birthday Club, to which Mrs. Moore belongs. They were Mrs. Seima Locker, Mrs. George McNulty, Mrs. Eva Behrens, Mrs. J. L. Pipkin, Mrs. C. O. Leach, Mrs. Donald MacKenzie, Mrs. T. C. Rice, Mrs. C. H. Stevens, Mrs. L. M. Moller.

Other guests included Mrs. John Isaac, Mrs. Kate Stilson, Mrs. Ethel Greenwood, Mrs. Howard Warner and her two children, Mrs. Jane Downs, Mrs. P. W. Parmelee, Mrs. N. C. Cummings, Mrs. Mary Trauger, Mrs. Herman J. Phillips and daughter, Priscilla; Mrs. H. H. Duncan and daughter, Caroline; Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Jean Lawson, Mrs. Wilbur H. Dossie and two children, Mrs. Eva Thomas, Mrs. G. E. McClelland, Mrs. L. M. Moller and two children, Mrs. Ella Stobel, Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter, Miss Carol Woodhams, and Miss Cora Clute.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR FLOWER SHOW

Against the background of an old country store, flower exhibits of the Woodside-Atherton Garden Club will be shown for the fifth season next Friday at the Tripp store in Woodside. Garden tours to the homes of Mrs. Franklin Zane, Mrs. Herbert Moffitt and Mrs. Samuel H. Miller will be in charge of Mrs. John Francis Neylan, and tea will be served in the gardens of Mrs. J. Athearn Folger during the afternoon.

One of the unusual features will be the exhibits of flower arrangements for a hot day, dark rooms, high narrow cases and low containers, directed by Mrs. Samuel Pond, Mrs. Douglas McBryde, Mrs. Leonard Hammond, Miss Marjorie Josselyn and Mrs. Paul Fay.

Mrs. Ettore Avenali will direct the decoration and picnic tables and Mrs. Richard Girvin will be in charge of luncheon displays, while Mrs. Moffitt will be in charge of window boxes. Mrs. Arthur Hooper and Mrs. Covington Pringle will direct the placing of exhibits by garden owners and there will be a special place for fruits and vegetables.

Officers of the club are Mrs. Silas Palmer, president; Mrs. Stewart Elliott, vice president; Mrs. Rudolph Schilling, secretary; Mrs. Frank Buck, treasurer; and Miss Katherine Donohoe, chairman of the Flower Show Committee. Mrs. De Lancey Lewis is chairman of publicity for the event, which annually draws a large attendance.

The show will open at 2 p. m. Friday. Admission, including tea and a tour of the three gardens, will be $1.

MRS. WILDMAN GOES TO PORTLAND WITH SON

Mrs. A. J. Wildman, who has been with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wildman, for several months, accompanied another son, Roy F. Wildman, his wife, and daughter, Marie Jean, on their return to their home in Portland yesterday. They had been here for several days during which time O. M. Wildman came from Colton to be present at a family reunion dinner at the Glenn Wildman home Saturday night. Mr. O. M. Wildman will remain with his brother for a few weeks.

James Flood, a recent graduate of Yale University, is here at the old home to permanently reside. He is a bright and affable young man, who is certain to have a splendid career.

The last of the renovating work at the local school is being completed and all will be spic and span for the opening of the school term on Monday.

SKEET STAR IN SUNDAY'S SHOOT HERE

J. P. Cuenin, Affield and Astrean editor of The Tribune and Olympic champion in skeet shooting, will head a list of outstanding bay region skaters in an exhibition shoot at the Redwood City Sportsmen's Club skeet field Sunday morning. Cuenin announced definitely today.

The veteran hunting and fishing expert was in Los Angeles winning the Olympic skeet title at the time of the formal opening of the Redwood City grounds two weeks ago and was therefore unable to accept the sportsmen's invitation. He informed club officials today.

Cuenin broke 99 birds out of 100 to win the Olympic event without much argument, and he announced that he is bringing his Pacific Coast team competition team to Redwood City Sunday for the express purpose of demonstrating how to crack 100 straight.

One of his mates, E. W. Becktel, got a fast start on the San Francisco boys last week when he set a first record of 50 straight for the new Redwood City layout.

Another marksman who is accompanying Cuenin Sunday is Ralph Scott, leading Southern California skeet shooter.

Cuenin states that from the manner in which Art Mills, Harry Arnold, Harry Miller and other local shooters are bringing up their scores to the 20 mark in only five or six rounds they will be ready for team competition with the Pacific Rod and Gun Club outfit and other clubs within a few weeks.

The skeet field will be open at 8 a. m. Sunday for those who wish to take advantage of the air conditions early in the morning.

MAN IS JAILED FOR KILLING SQUIRRELS

Alfred Breaum, rancher living on the Portola road, will have to spend 15 days in the county jail for shooting tree squirrels.

He is under sentence by Justice of the Peace E. E. Hardy following his arrest by Frank Boomhower, deputy game warden of Palo Alto, who declared that a few hours after having warned Breaum against shooting the squirrels he caught the man killing one on his premises.

Eighth Birthday Is Occasion for Matinee and Party

The eighth birthday of Thomas W. Cutting Jr. was made the occasion for a matinee party at the local theater Saturday and a winner roast in the garden of the T. W. Cutting home on Myrtle avenue afterward.

Guests who enjoyed the young host's hospitality were Phillip and Theodore Nell of Atherton, Harry Bowman, Walter Moore, Bernie Wagner, Francis Pryor, Allan Salsbury and Walter Farrell of Atherton.

TAKE APARTMENT IN SAN FRANCISCO

Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyd Weir have taken an apartment on Russian Hill in San Francisco for the winter and will divide their time between that city and their home in Menlo Park.

First Official Meeting of P.-T.A. Opens Friday A. M.

The first official meeting of the Seventeenth District, Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be held Friday morning at the San Mateo Junior College beginning at 10:30 o'clock and continuing until 3:30.

Reports on the state convention held last May will be heard together with officers' reports. Mrs. E. I. Bartlett of South San Francisco, the new president, will be in charge. Mrs. J. E. Baughn assumes her duties as auditor this year.

Meetings of the district will be held on the third Friday of the month.

Dog Bites Man Who Went to Its Rescue

BURLINGAME, Aug. 16.—Hearing the plaintive yelp of a chow dog, A. B. Hempstead, 834 Acacia drive, went to its rescue.

Investigation revealed that the dog was caught by a foot in a children's swing. It stood patiently by while Hempstead played the role of the Good Samaritan.

Once free, however, the chow turned on Hempstead, biting the hand that had freed it.

Hempstead, somewhat abashed by such treatment, went to the Mills Memorial Hospital, San Mateo, and had the wound bandaged.

One of First Friendly Indians Is Visitor Here

Roy A. Hohberger, who is the originator of the Friendly Indian program for younger boys, enjoyed this week-end a visit from Robert Taylor, one of the members of the first tribe of the organization. Mr. Taylor, who, with his sister, Miss Mary Taylor, is attending the University of Idaho, from which a brother, David, and another sister, Alice, have been graduated, has been touring California this summer with the family and has just come from the Olympic Games at Los Angeles. The four are children of Dr. J. M. Taylor of Boise, Idaho.

Entertaining informally for the group at luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Hohberger also asked to greet them Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Spence, who were with the Boise High School faculty when the young people attended school there.

It was in Boise that Mr. Hohberger introduced his program of Friendly Indian work ten years ago, when he was secretary of the boys' work department of the Young Men's Christian Association which he represents in Redwood City. The program is now in effect in many foreign countries as well as in the greater part of the United States.

Woodside People Home From South For Horse Show

Returning from Los Angeles after attending the Olympic Games, Mr. and Mrs. John Newton Rosekrans are at their Woodside home and are arranging a number of affairs for the week of the San Mateo County National Horse Show at the Menlo Circus Club.

Canyon Road Taken Into County System

Canyon road between Jefferson avenue and Oak Knoll drive, west of the city, was taken into the county road system by vote of the board of supervisors Monday afternoon.

The petition was filed by E. J. Machabee and other residents of the area. Motion to accept the road was made by Supervisor J. W. Poole, and was seconded by Supervisor T. L. Hickey.

LA HONDA ROAD WILL BE PUSHED WITH HASTE

Work is to proceed with all possible haste on the first section of the La Honda road extending west of the Skyline boulevard following several steps taken Monday afternoon by the board of supervisors.

These steps include decision to condemn the land necessary for rights of way; the appointment of H. C. Tuchen of Redwood City to appraise the land, and the adoption of the wage scale to be effective on the project.

Surveyor James S. James reported to the board that the estimated total cost of the construction of the first mile and a quarter of road is $35,466.

This is based on the assumption that the contractor will be required to provide for passage of traffic during construction. If the traffic can be detoured during that period over the old La Honda grade, James said a saving of $3,000 could be made.

An appropriation of $25,000 was made for this work on August 1. James asked the board if it would be possible to increase this sum to meet his estimate of $35,466. He said use can be made of the excess excavation to advantage by filling across the gully on the Andrus property.

Plans and specifications are ready for advertising of bids on Thursday, and bids can be opened on September 12, James said, if the board authorizes the condemnation of land, which it did on motion of Supervisor John W. Poole, Redwood City, and second of Supervisor Rosalie Brown, San Mateo.

The Woodside Gardeners' Association in conjunction with other similar organizations on the peninsula, will hold a picnic at Pacific City on August 28.

San Mateo County Taxpayers Saved $16,000 a Year for Last 20 Years

Just a moment's figuring shows that the above saving to San Mateo county taxpayers has reached a total of $320,000 for the 20-year period.

Quite a remarkable bit of economy this, and an unusual achievement when you stop to consider that in order to do it, one man was forced to nearly double his work, when he easily might have shifted the burden and forgotten the taxpayers. But he didn't.

Back in 1910 San Mateo county became entitled to two superior courts and two judges, but SUPERIOR JUDGE GEORGE H. BUCK told the taxpayers he could save them expense by increasing his own efforts.

Each year for the next 20 years the work kept growing heavier and becoming more demanding upon the efforts of Judge Buck, but he shouldered the burden and kept pace with his court work, starting early in the morning and working until late in the day.

County records show that it costs approximately $16,000 a year to operate a superior court in San Mateo county. Multiplied this by the 20 years Judge Buck has carried the burden alone and it reveals a saving to the taxpayers of $320,000.

Only last year, when the rapid growth of the county swelled court business to unprecedented volume, was another court established.

This service is only one of the many great services to the public Judge Buck has rendered during his career on the bench. Assumption of such arduous tasks as were necessary to effect this economy proves beyond dispute the capability of the man performing them.

Judge Buck's faithfulness to the trust reposed in him by the people has won for him their high esteem, marked respect and deep confidence. His keen business sense has helped to safeguard their material welfare.

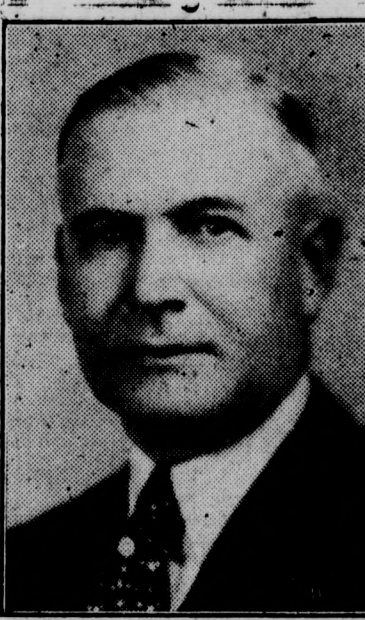

This devotion to your interests will continue if you

CALIFORNIA LABOR, PRODUCTS BEST HELPED BY SHORTRIDGE

Confidence that United States Senator Samuel M. Shortridge will not only vote for re-submission of the Eighteenth Amendment, but will use his influence toward lifting of prohibition from wines and beer this December, was expressed last night (Thursday) in a radio address by E. Clement Horst, noted California hop grower and farm leader.

Horst, prominently identified with prohibition reform movements for many years, speaking over radio station KGO in the interests of Senator Shortridge's candidacy for re-election, pointed out that newly-elected members of congress do not take office until March, 1933, and said:

"Were another man elected to the United States Senate in place of Senator Shortridge, the new senator could do nothing in any legislative matter—prohibition or otherwise—except to twiddle his thumbs until December, 1933."

The speaker advocated return of Senator Shortridge to the senate also as an essential step toward solution of the country's economic troubles and as a continued guarantee of protection for California labor and California products through his tariff activities.

"At this year's state and national elections there are two controlling issues," Horst declared. "These issues are related to each other. The one is the ridding ourselves of our national curse, the so-called 'noble experiment,' and the other is the restoration of prosperity to our labor, our farmers, our timber, mine and oil interests, our manufacturers and our tradesmen."

"Many people believe that getting rid of prohibition is all that is necessary to restore American prosperity in practically every line of our national affairs. In my opinion, the essentials for restored prosperity, to all concerned, depend not alone on the prompt lifting of prohibition, but also on the adoption of a sound economic plan for our nation, by which is meant a plan that will overcome involuntary unemployment and that will restore our wage scale to the high standards of living to which our people are clearly entitled."

Dealing with economic conditions, Horst said:

"The sending to Washington of a new senator would be so great a political and business blunder as to amount to a calamity, especially as far as California is concerned. Senator Shortridge is now, and for a number of years last past has been a member of the senate finance committee, by far the most important committee of the United States Senate."

"All tariff legislation, all appropriations, all revenue tax, and other important financial matters, must be passed upon by this committee before they can be considered by the entire membership of the senate. No new member of the senate could hope to be appointed to its finance committee."

"Senator Shortridge is, by far, the strongest and most active fighter for a really protective tariff for all American producers and labor. He is one of the few political leaders who does not allow himself to be fooled into standing for inadequate tariffs based upon pretended foreign costs of production."

"To Senator Shortridge, the need of high import tariffs is conclusively proved by evidence that American producers and labor are suffering from foreign competition, either by way of competitive imports or by way of American producers being forced to sell their products at a loss because of the ability to import directly or indirectly competitive products at prices that the American producers cannot profitably meet on the basis of paying a liberal standard of wages to American labor."

SUMMONS No. 20771

GRANGE PLANNING PROGRAM TUESDAY

The ways and means committee of the East Palo Alto Grange announced at Tuesday's meeting an entertainment for the evening of August 23 at 8:15. Plantation minstrels, produced by R. E. Hesselman of San Jose, with some local talent, will be presented. A call for home made candy was made by Mrs. L. C. Bennett to sell at the entertainment. The admission will be 25c for adults and 15c for children.

C. R. Scott, legislative chairman, stated that stop signals would be put up at University, avenue and Bayshore, and Willow road and Bay road very soon.

The home economics chairman, Mrs. Henry Barton, advised the use of adhesive tape on one side of a razor blade when in use for ripping materials and thus avoid cutting the fingers.

The Grange went on record barring a candidate for public office from speaking before the meetings unless other candidates be given the same privilege.

A memorial service was held for a departed member, D. O. Thomas. R. O. Atkinson, master of Almaden Grange, spoke briefly of Grange work and extended an invitation to Almaden Grange Wednesday evening, October 5.

For the lecture hour the home economics committee entertained. Mrs. Henry Garton cut and fitted a dress, explaining as she cut. Mrs. R. M. Adkins gave a message treatment exhibition and setting up exercises and Mrs. R. F. Barbour explained and exhibited the proper method of setting a table.

A dance followed. The refreshment committee for September 6th will include Mrs. A. E. Albertson, Mrs. E. M. Leeds, E. Martinelli, Mrs. E. M. Leeds, and Frederick King.

L. C. BROWN'S HOME FROM SANTA CRUZ
Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brown and family are home from Santa Cruz where they passed a two-week vacation.

MRS. SUTTON IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS
Mrs. John G. Sutton of Menlo Park entertained informally at luncheon Wednesday at her home in Menlo Park. Her guests were friends from the peninsula and San Francisco.

SUPERVISORS

elimination of the 40-cent road tax was "much ado about nothing" as he had not heard a single complaint against this levy in the outside districts.

He defended the board, saying that the tax burden was created by the people themselves and cited that they were now trying to pay off a $1 tax with a "60-cent dollar," the buying power having increased 40 per cent but the burden remaining at its old level.

More Popular to Spend
He said that a peculiar political system had been built up by which it was more popular to spend than to save, but that the time had come for a change from the dome of the capitol in Washington to the dome of the courthouse in Redwood City.

"Are we to believe," Mr. Merk asked, "that your tentative tax rate which is 3 cents higher than a year ago is the best this board can do?"

Supervisor Hickey replied that no final rate had been set, and this brought the statement from Hickey that Hickey defended every item which it was suggested might be cut. He criticized the Community Hospital as an "extraneous thing" even though the board boasted of its standing in the medical fraternity.

Julius Smith, Redwood City real estate man, said that newspaper reports that the tentative rate was three cents higher than the old rate "were hand-somely engraved invitations to the taxpayers to refuse to meet their bills."

He cited a block in the business district of Redwood City in which 22 per cent of the gross income of the stores was going to meet taxes and that from 20 to 60 per cent of incomes from some rented were going to the same source.

George Williams of Burlingame said the morning was "wasted," except if it convinced the board that the public wanted taxes reduced.

Schwern Is Blamed
Supervisor John W. Poole, Redwood City, rose to his feet to defend the board, saying that the delay in getting out the budget was due to departmental heads and to the interference of R. P. Schwerin, president of the Tax Reduction League of San Mateo, who sat in daily with the supervisors during the budget-making period.

"Schwerin cost us the loss of a lot of valuable time," Poole said. Schwerin admitted that his presence during the 17 days of the hearing had delayed the board. Auditor Slack warned that the time was short in which to prepare any printed pamphlets (the rate to be set two weeks from today), but offered to go into detail on each of the items in the budget if the taxpayers would gather around a table with him.

This move met with the approval of the board and public hearings were ordered continued daily until the public has had ample time to go over the budget in its entirety.

Alfred Walkers Honor Birthday At Family Dinner
Honoring the birthday of Mrs. Benjamin Walker, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Walker, were hosts Monday evening at their home on Fulton street to members of the family at dinner. These included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. O'Connell and Miss Lillian Walker, daughter of the honoree.

MENLO PARK PERSONAL ITEMS
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haack of Portland, Ore., who have been attending the Olympic Games, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Ward Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bower returned Tuesday from Pacific Grove in readiness for the opening next Monday of Menlo Park's public schools. Mr. Bower is principal.

The following girls who graduated this year from St. Joseph's Parochial School enrolled yesterday in the Academy Catholic High School in Burlingame: Theresa Lemke, Josephine Ahlert, Jean Parlee and Jean Ward.

THREE ESCAPE HURTS
Car Overturns On Road Leading From Coastside
Escaping serious injuries when the car overturned, 3 San Franciscans late yesterday were given emergency treatment in a San Mateo hospital and then returned to their homes.

They were William R. Hamilton, 59, 759 Twenty-third avenue, San Francisco, his wife, Mary, 54, and Mrs. Irene Hamilton, 27.

The car was found overturned against a guard rail on the Half Moon Bay road by State Officer Quinlan.

The average elevation of the earth surface above sea level is 2,800 feet.

MAN GOES TO DEATH ON TRACK

Japanese Lies in Path of Train; Decapitated

A well dressed but unidentified Japanese, about 35 years of age, placed his head on a rail between San Carlos and Belmont at 8:50 Wednesday and was decapitated by a southbound Southern Pacific passenger train. The man was tentatively identified as R. Namba of Los Angeles.

Engineer Carlene, in charge of the locomotive, told Deputy Coroner John Layng that he saw the Japanese throw his hat away, then lay down on the tracks to await death. The engineer applied the brakes of the train, but could not be stopped in time to prevent the suicide.

The dead man had $3 in silver in his pockets. No marks or cards to aid in identifying him were found in the clothing except the name in the clothing firm in his shoes. Authorities were checking with officials there to seek any information possible.

Layng also interviewed Japanese residents of Belmont and San Carlos in an effort to learn the identity of the train victim.

The body was found near the San Francisco water pumping plant by the Southern Pacific right of way. Belmont police notified Deputy Sheriff Tim O'Rourke, who summoned Deputy Coroner Layng.

BUTLER DIES IN TWO-CAR COLLISION

Hillsborough Resident
Dead in Tanforan
Auto Mishap

Fatal injuries were incurred early Wednesday by Charles Rovina, 31, of 328 North Ellsworth street, San Mateo, when his car collided with the rear end of another southbound vehicle just south of the Tanforan racetrack.

Rovina was dead when fellow motorists took him to the Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo. The second car was driven by Russell C. Slade, 42, of 430 Palm street, Palo Alto.

Officers Chester Kreiss and Otto Schramm of the night patrol filed a report of the accident with the traffic bureau in Redwood City.

The mishap occurred in the stretch of El Camino Real just south of Tanforan known as the "Portuguese Dip."

Both cars were proceeding south on the highway, and Rovina is believed to have fallen asleep at the wheel and to have run into the rear of Slade's car.

This was the version of the accident offered by Patrolman Kreiss, Capt. James B. Logan reported.

The crash occurred at 1:45 o'clock this morning.

Rovina was employed as a butler on the Gustave Lachman estate at San Raymond, and La Canada drive, Hillsborough.

FIRE TRUCK IS WORTH $20 DAY

That Is Value Put in Crash Lawsuit

A fire engine is worth $20 per day to a city.

This value was placed today by the City of San Mateo on the Sea-grave fire truck which was disabled for 25 days in a suit filed with County Clerk Elmer E. B. Hinman against F. R. McLellan, 50, of 721 Lincoln avenue, Redwood City.

The city asks $500 damages for repairs made to the truck; $417.80 for damages not repairable, and $500 for loss of the use of the apparatus for 25 days at $20 per day. McLellan's car and the fire truck collided at Bayshore boulevard and Peninsular avenue, San Mateo, on July 11, while the truck was responding to a fire at Coyote Point.

BURLINGAME TO PROBE LIGHTING

City Has Been Paying Neighbors' Bills

BURLINGAME, Aug. 16.—Finding that it had been paying the street lights for San Mateo and Hillsborough in instances where the center line of the street was the dividing line between the cities, the council last night asked the city attorney to petition the other two city boards for relief.

The city attorney is to determine, if possible, how much the street lighting bill amounts to for the offending electroliners across the city line and to make a demand on the other boards for payment.

"Dynamite" Sent to Stanford Manager

The croppy hair of Alfred R. Masters, graduate manager of the Stanford Board of Athletic Control, stood on end Tuesday when he opened a package and out dropped a stick of what seemed to be dynamite.

With it came a note from the sender and an unfilled-out application for 1932 football tickets. The note said: "Your prices are too d—high!"

It was announced later that the "bomb" was a "dud."

NOTED PROHIBITION LEADER ON PENINSULA

Dr. Ernest H. Cherington of Delaware, Ohio, noted prohibition leader, and his son, Ernest, teaching fellow in astronomy at the University of California, were guests Friday at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Reed B. Cherington, Dr. Cherington and the Rev. Mr. Cherington are cousins.

Dr. Cherington, who is general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism, head of the education department of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and chairman of the National Prohibition Board of Strategy, spoke Sunday in Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco.

WINS FINAL DECREE

Menlo Park

The city council met Tuesday evening, there being present Weeden, Hart and Crane. Protests against the assessment for the Live Oak avenue opening to University drive were over-ruled and the assessment itself of $1,574.96 was confirmed by the council after hearing the protests.

The tax rate of Menlo Park for the current fiscal year will be 85 cents per $100, a reduction of 10 cents from last year's rate of 95 cents.

This was determined by the city council Tuesday night when it approved the fiscal year's budget, which provides for the raising of $7469.80 in taxes on a total assessed value for real and personal property of $878,800 for the city. Delinquencies of 15 per cent are allowed for in the budget to make the net anticipated revenue by taxes $6274.63.

The tax rate will be officially set by the council at its meeting here next Tuesday night.

Total revenue of the city's general fund is estimated at $15,529.10, as against budgeted expenditures of $13,029.10, to leave a surplus at the end of the year of $2500.

The revenue is listed as follows: cash on hand on July 1, 1932, $3024.66; refund from street improvement fund, $217.85; refund from street proceedings, $232.30; refund from employees' liability and premiums, $40; general property tax, $9274.63; securities tax, $499.66; business licenses, $3500; dog licenses, $200; building permits, $180; court fines (other than traffic fines), $1200; rent from library board, $60; interest on bank deposits, $100.

The anticipated expenditures from the general fund are as follows: city council, $125; city clerk's office, $800; city court, $820; treasurer, $189; attorney, $950; city engineer, building inspector and superintendent of streets, $240; city hall, $945, including $420 for rent, $300 for janitor service and $225 for light, heat, water and telephone; insurance and bond premiums, $421.50; street lighting for highway, $1042.80; miscellaneous, $240.80, including $65 for auditor's fees, $250 for printing and a contingent fund of $2095.80; police department, $4820, including $4320 for officers' salaries, $400 for gasoline, oil and repairs for police automobile and a contingent fund of $100; dog pound, $115, including $10 for poundman's compensation and $5 for dog tags and records; and $150 for public health and sanitation.

County Auditor E. M. Stack reported to the council last night that the total assessed value of real and personal property in the city is $878,800 and that the value of stocks and bonds held in the city is $749,500.

The real and personal property valuation is divided as follows: town lots, $419,810; improvements thereon, $388,090; acreage, $12,850; improvements thereon, $18,750; secured personal property, $22,025; and unsecured personal property, $17,225.

The recently completed audit by Lawrence Scudder and Company of the city's finances for the past fiscal year revealed that the total income of the general fund was $16,403.34 (made up of an adjusted balance of $1305.56 on July 1, 1931, and revenues of $15,097.78) and that expenditures totaled $13,788.68 to leave a balance at the end of the year of $3024.66.

Revenues were detailed as follows: taxes, $8284.42; business licenses, $4255.16; dog licenses, $205.50; building permits, $200.60; court fines, ordinance violations, $1223.50; rent from library and sanitary boards, $105; interest on bank balances, $111.20; special police duty, $272.50; refund, trench inspection cost, $137, and refund on insurance and incidentals, $119.44.

General expenditures were as follows: city council, $110; city clerk, $765.35; city court, $729.26; city treasurer, $189; city attorney, $921; city engineer, $101.49; street lighting, $1042.80; city hall (rent, janitor service, etc.), $664.65; miscellaneous, $1934.25; police department, $686.38; pound, $74.50.

In the street improvement fund there was an adjusted balance of $8026.50 on July 1, 1931. Revenues were $967.50 from traffic fines, and expenditures were $6932.63 to leave a balance on June 30, 1932, of $2061.37.

Street improvement fund expenditures were detailed as follows: maintenance of streets, $1117.50; street sweeping, $265; traffic signs, $28.50; painting traffic lanes and signs, $139.95; installation of traffic signal system, $795.12; land condemnation for Live Oak avenue, $1574.96; paving of Live Oak avenue, $1500; resurfacing streets (ordinance 31-4), $1121.60; drawing descriptions of 171 parcels for assessment, Live Oak avenue, $225; engineering services on Fremont street improvement, $140; legal services on the same improvement, $25.

The sum of $217.85 was ordered by the council to be transferred from the street improvement fund to the city's general fund to pay for warrants which the auditor declared should have been charged to the former rather than the latter fund.

Insurance on the city hall and the police automobile was ordered by the council to be renewed.

Councilmen A. H. Anderson and W. E. Dale were absent from last night's meeting.

Supervisor John W. Poole will receive a whopper of a vote for re-election in Menlo Park. The people have faith in him and are going to show it by the big vote Mr. Poole will receive here. His charming wife is a former Menlo girl.

The radio address of Senator S. M. Shortridge, broadcasted from the Palace Hotel Tuesday evening, was listened to by the friends of the senator in Menlo Park. It was a masterpiece, one that won favor and votes for Mr. Shortridge.

An error was made in this paper last week when it was announced that Alexander Beltramo had been married. We were just a little bit premature, for the happy event will not take place until tomorrow at high noon in Mount Carmel Church, Redwood City. Miss Theresa M. Cigliutti, a very charming and pretty girl, is to become the bride of Mr. Beltramo.

That evening the young couple will depart for a six months' trip through Europe. The couple have the best wishes of their many friends for a bon voyage and a happy journey on life's seas.

The Mothers' Club of St. Joseph's School, Menlo Park, will hold a benefit card party for the school at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening, August 22, at the Central Grammar School, Menlo Park. Score cards will be 25 cents.

The Palo Alto and Menlo Park groups of the Junior Auxiliary to the Stanford Home will give a luncheon next Saturday noon at the clubhouse of the Menlo Circus Clubs. The luncheon will be given between the morning and afternoon performances of the San Mateo County National Horse Show. The luncheon is open to the public at a charge of $1.50 a plate.

St. Joseph's Alumni Association will hold an important meeting in the Hall of the Nativity this evening. All the members are urged to attend.

Beth Durrant Kelley is here with her husband and young son spending a two weeks' vacation at the Kelley home on Glenwood avenue.

A retreat for the ladies of this community and the peninsula is being held at the convent of the Sacred Heart. The retreat began on Tuesday and will end this afternoon. There is a large attendance, larger than last year. It is an annual affair that is looked forward to by the devoted churchgoers of this section. The spiritual advantages gained by seclusion for a few days cannot be fully estimated save by those who participate.

Menlo Park pours out its sympathy to the family of William J. Hoff who was drowned in Searsville Lake last Sunday afternoon. The deceased came from a pioneer family of this community which dates its residence back to 1860. The late Andrew Lawlor, father of the mother of the deceased, erected the first dwelling in Menlo Park, which still stands. In this house was born Mrs. Hoff, mother of W. J. Hoff and here in Menlo Park the deceased was born 42 years ago. Here he attended school, but for over fifteen years he has been living in Palo Alto where he was engaged in business for many years. Only recently he became connected with a garage at Stanford as an automobile mechanic.

Hoff went to Searsville Lake late Sunday afternoon in company with his two sisters, Mrs. Eva Peterson and Mrs. Mae Kottler, San Francisco families. At about 4 o'clock he went in swimming and disappeared beneath the surface while he was swimming in full sight of a large crowd of people. It was more than 20 minutes before his body was recovered by lifeguards. An inhalator, rushed to the lake by Fire Chief Thomas Cuff of Menlo Park, failed to revive him.

It is believed that Hoff was stricken with a heart attack while he was swimming.

Hoff was a good swimmer and was only in the water five minutes when he sank never to rise again alive. At the coroner's inquest it was shown that there was an undergrowth of weeds in the water where the young man went down in the presence of his sisters who gave the alarm. A fatality appears to follow the Hoff family. Five years ago a younger brother, Lester, was drowned in one of the large sloughs near Dumbarton bridge. The young man had shot a duck. Plunging into the cold water to secure the bird, he sank before help reached him. James Hoff, father of the two men, lost two brothers many years ago by drowning. The fates seem to be harsh with this unfortunate family.

Surviving Mr. Hoff are his widow, Mrs. Gladys Hoff; three daughters, Gladys, Dorothy and Marian Hoff; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hoff of Menlo Park, and a brother, Edward J. Hoff of Menlo Park.

The funeral Wednesday morning from St. Thomas Aquinas Church, Palo Alto, was largely attended by the friends of the deceased. Interment was in Alta Mesa Cemetery.

Miss Agnes Sullivan has gone to Berkeley to live while she is taking a full course of study at the State University. Miss Sullivan graduated from the Junior College at San Mateo last June.

The traffic signals at the Central School zone have been installed, thanks to the city council for its activity in urging their installation. They will be the means of protecting the lives of the children.

Jack Collins, who was killed in a motorcycle accident last week at Watsonville, was widely known in Menlo Park. Up until a short time ago he conducted the Depot Garage near the Southern Pacific station, where Mr. Collins had many friends who were shocked to learn of his sudden death.

Woodside

Woodside is always specially interested in the horse show at the Menlo Circus Club because the entries from the Woodside stables of Mrs. William P. Roth and Mrs. John N. Rosekrans are among the finest at the show. Both of these stables have taken their share of the awards at this year's exhibit.

The most interesting local event of this week is the fifth annual flower show of the Woodside-Atherton Garden Club of which Mrs. Silas Palmer is president. Miss Katherine Donohoe is chairman of the flower show committee and has arranged for an unusual exhibit. Decorative arrangement of the flowers is to be considered as well as the flowers themselves. The show will be held on Friday at Tripp's store on King's Mountain road. This was the site of the first store and the first post-office in San Mateo county. The building was erected in 1854 and has been preserved by the Garden Club.

After the show there will be a tour of the gardens of Mrs. Samuel Pond, Mrs. Herbert Moffitt, Mrs. Franklin Zane with Mrs. John Francis Neylan acting as guide. Tea will be served at the home of Mrs. J. Atherton Folger. The tour will start at 2 o'clock from Neuman's store. The display is to all members of the club and all containments of flowers must harmonize with the background of an old country store.

Mrs. Samuel Pond has charge of the display for "a dark room."

Mrs. Douglas McBryde is chairman of the display, "for a hot day."

Mrs. Leonard Hammond will preside over the display devoted to "a high narrow place."

Miss Marjorie Josselyn is in charge of the foliage display and Mrs. Paul Fay for displays "in a small, low container the arrangement to be not over six inches high."

Mrs. Richard Grivin will preside over geraniums and Mrs. Herbert Moffitt over window box exhibits.

Mrs. Ettore Avenali will have charge of the picnic table decorations and Miss May Huddart of the arrangements of fruits and vegetables as used in decorative display.

Mrs. Arthur Hooper and Mrs. Covington Pringle will take care of the exhibits of "specimen blooms" such as dahlias, delphiniums, fuchsias, gladioli, zinnias, asters, hydrangeas and lilies.

Many of the garden clubs about the bay are planning to exhibit. Olympic teams who are visiting Mrs. W. P. Roth at the San Mateo County Horse Show will be the guests of honor.

Other officers of the Woodside-Atherton Garden Club are: vice-president, Mrs. Stewart Elliot; secretary, Mrs. Rudolph Schilling; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Buck.

Mrs. A. B. Swinnerton and son, William, have accompanied Mr. Swinnerton on a business trip to Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wobber are vacationing along the Redwood highway in the vicinity of Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hotelling and daughter are spending several weeks in Lake county.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turtle, who have been living for some time at the Ross log cabin, have moved to the Huddart estate where he will have charge of the gardens.

MAN DROWNED IN SEARSVILLE

Mechanic Goes Under While on Outing With Relatives

William J. Hoff, 42, of 461 Addison avenue, Palo Alto, an auto mechanic employed at the Stanford University corporation yard, was drowned on Sunday afternoon at Searsville lake while on a Sunday outing. It was the second death by drowning to occur within a few years in the Hoff family. Hoff went to Searsville lake on Sunday in company with his two sisters, Mrs. Elva Peterson and Mrs. Mae Kottler of San Francisco, and their families. At about 4 o'clock he went in swimming and disappeared beneath the surface while swimming in full sight of a large crowd of people. It was more than 20 minutes before his body was recovered by life guards. An inhalator, rushed to the lake by Fire Chief Thomas Cuff of Menlo Park, failed to revive him. It is believed that Hoff was stricken with a heart attack while he was swimming.

Hoff was a native of Menlo Park. He was employed at one time in Menlo Park and later operated a business in Palo Alto. For the last few years he had been employed at Stanford.

About five years ago, a younger brother, Lester, was drowned when he attempted to pick up a pigeon he had shot near the Dumbarton bridge.

Hoff is survived by his widow, Mrs. Gladys Hoff; three daughters, Gladys, Dorothy and Marion Hoff; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hoff of Menlo Park, and a brother, Ted Hoff, in addition to his two sisters.
